My Journey

My first time in France:

My name is Micah Stark and this summer I got to travel to France for the first time in my life. I spent time in Aix, swam in the Calanques and climbed mountains in Chamonix. A few themes followed through the whole trip so rather than put the pictures in chronological order I thought I'd group them based on commonality.

Gig'em Ags in Every Place

Or, "A single pose for every picture"

A couple Gigs
in Paris, including the Big Gig!!

Gigs with water!!

The first is in Chamonix, the second at the Calanques! Both took quite the hike to get there!

Next page: A couple Scottish gigs!

A man with blonde hair and sunglasses, wearing a brown Patagonia hoodie and light-colored pants, stands on a busy city sidewalk. He is giving a thumbs up. In the background, many people are walking in the same direction. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day. A semi-transparent dark overlay covers the entire image, and the text 'One more Chamonix Gig!' is centered in white. A small orange horizontal line is positioned below the word 'Chamonix'.

One more Chamonix Gig!

We are Micah

Or, The friends I've made

First Micah pic in Paris, we didn't know each other that well yet but this was the start of a great friendship!

Ok, so we didn't take that many Micah pics but this is the one we took in Roussillon. I love all the friends I've made on this trip including Micah! Can't believe its almost over. (The trip not the friendship)

Micah in High Places

Or, it's too late to send me home!

Marseilles! Not exactly a high place but it gets better!

Chamonix with the boys!

Next: Living life on the edge in Marseilles, Cassis, and Edinburgh

Paragliding

Or, A good day to fly

Hiking

Or, my chronic foot pain

Hikes in the Calanques

Hiking in Chamonix

Hikes where I didn't get a map. Top left at the Ochre trails in Roussillon. Bottom right was the Verdon Gorge, not exactly a hike but it was pretty!

Hiking in Mt. Victoire
outside Aix

The background of the entire image is a dark blue-grey color with a repeating pattern of stylized, dark blue-green tropical leaves, possibly palm fronds, pointing in various directions.

Good Times to be had
