Day 4

Top of Paris Mall

A lot went on in the first 4 days in Paris, plus a lot of walking. First few days, I met and made friends with the study abroad group.

We went to many attractions but the best is yet to come. For me the other places that I went to are better than Paris. But Paris is still a must go if you are in France.

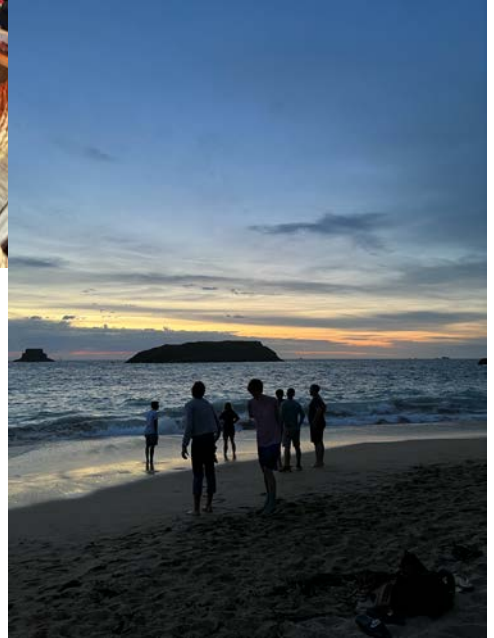

Normandy, France

Point du Hoc where General Rudder lead a group of soldiers with a mission to capture German guns and artillery. Standing at a place where freedom was fought for was a sobering experience

One of the best city I've been to. The scenery was just perfect. The group of friends was just a cherry on top

Saint Malo

In Aix, we did a lot of awesome things, though studying wasn't part of it hahaha. We kayak in Verdon Gorges, went to Marseille, and took a few of sleeping pictures of my friends.

Aix En Provence

In Aix, we did a lot of awesome things, though studying wasn't part of it hahaha. We kayak in Verdon Gorges, went to Marseille, and took a few of sleeping pictures of my friends.

Calanques

Brandon shaved his head the night before going to Cannes for our 3 days weekend. Some people had a little too much alcohol hahahah. The place has fantastic beaches and the island that we went to on our second day is beautiful. The Champions League final was on that day too! And I did some Snorkelling!

Cannes

After coming to Aix, I have travelled to Marseille, the Gorges, the Calanques, and Cannes as a study abroad group and as a small friend group.

As a group of 14 close friends, we travelled to Switzerland and I must say this has to be the best experience I have had in my life. This study abroad program really gave me the opportunity to hang out with friends in the Swiss Alps and played some board games at the same time, especially Quiplash hahaha.

The best experience I have had, probably in my life. I went to see the Swiss Alps and stayed at the most scenic Airbnb ever and it only cost $29/night per person. The picture at the bottom right is the view from the Airbnb balcony.

Switzerland

The next few slides will just be a bunch of pictures from Switzerland. I legit would recommend everyone doing this with a group of friends.
