Class and Coffee Break

“Un capuchino por favor”

Every day we would have an hour coffee break in the little cafe next to our classroom! I would always get a capuchino, which always helped the 3 hour class go by faster.

Barranco

On the first day in Lima, we toured Barranco and got to see the cats in Kennedy Park

Historic Downtown Lima

On the second day, we toured downtown Lima, saw the capitol building, and visited St. Dominic's church.

Pottery Museum

We went to the Museo Larco on one of our free days and saw different Inca pottery and jewelry. They also had a pretty flower wall!

Ceviche Class

We got to watch a professional chef make ceviche and eat it. It was the best ceviche I've ever had!

Rosa Nautica

One of our group dinners was at Rosa Nautica which had amazon views and good food!

Paracas Trip

We visited Paracas and the Ballestas islands to see penguins and sea lions. We also went sand dune riding.

Cusco Day 1

We got to see llamas and alpacas. I can now tell the difference between the two:

- Alpacas have rounder faces and are cuter
- Llamas have skinnier faces and spit

Cusco Day 2

We saw many Inca archeological sites and go surprised with ice cream!

Cusco Day 3

We saw more Inca sites and had lunch at a hotel

Last days in Lima

We went to Central and to Osaka for sushi
