Takeaways!

- ArcGIS is a fun software if you love maps
- Take lots of photos of yourself doing fun things
- Communicating with only basic Spanish skills is doable and people appreciate you trying
- Meals are usually a long experience at many restaurants
- New foods like ceviche, alpaca and guinea pig are fun to try
- Driving is a chaotic adventure every time, especially in Ubers
- The Inca were incredibly patient and precise when it came to structures
- Label your luggage with your name and contact information when flying internationally!
