Things I learned!

- Peru is home to some of the best restaurants in the world!!
- They consider meals with friends and family and experience, so they don't rush and enjoy the time spent together!
- The driving there is more hectic than in America, but they also are more lenient with driving mistakes!
- ArcGIS is much more than just mapping. It is a very productive way to distribute and decipher data!
- Class is more fun with coffee breaks!
- It is okay to be out of your comfort zone, embrace the experiences :)
- Traveling abroad can earn you life long friendships!

Thank you Peru!

This trip exceeded my expectations in so many ways. I loved getting to learn more about the Peruvian culture. There was so much value in the time that we had to explore Lima and Cusco, while making new or becoming better friends with everyone along the way. I personally saw so much growth in myself from before the trip. It taught helped me in my confidence in making decisions and with communicating with people. It also taught me that it is okay to slow down and enjoy the moments that you are in. Learning from different cultures is a beautiful thing and should never be taken for granted.

I strongly encourage anyone that has an opportunity to go aboard to take it! You'll never believe all that you will learn :)

Thank you!!!
