3. Larcomar
4. Parque Kennedy

PARACAS, PERU

Paracas was an individually planned excursion in which we got the opportunity to go sandboarding, sand duning, and a chance to see the Nazca Lines. Make sure to book a trip if interested!

CUSCO, PERU

Cusco was by far the prettiest location. With so much history and scenic backgrounds, it was definitely an awe-inspiring adventure.

OVERALL EXPERIENCE

Even though Peru was in a state of emergency during our visit, I still felt generally safe. Having the opportunity to make new friends, experience a new culture, all while learning how to use ArcGIS was an opportunity I would not recommend to skip out on! Studying abroad is the perfect opportunity to grow as an individual and a way to embark on new adventures. So go out there and find the international you!
