Journey through Lima: Day 1

- On Dec. 27 we first toured our NM Lima Hotel whereabouts and had the best Ice cream before we started our first class!
- Later we all got dressed up for the best welcome dinner and our intro into Peruvian Cuisine.
- The Huaca Pucllana restaurant next to the clay and adobe pyramid ruins was so nice! This monument represents the cultural advancements of Lima since they were built somewhere between 200-700AD.

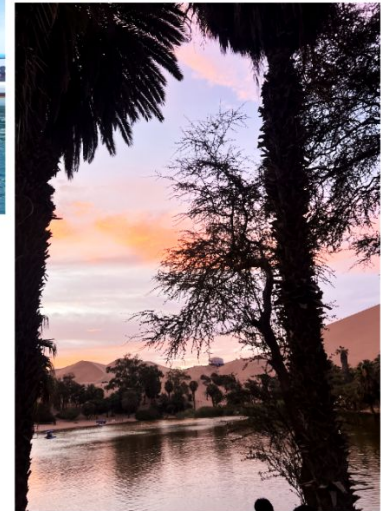

Journey through Lima: Day 2

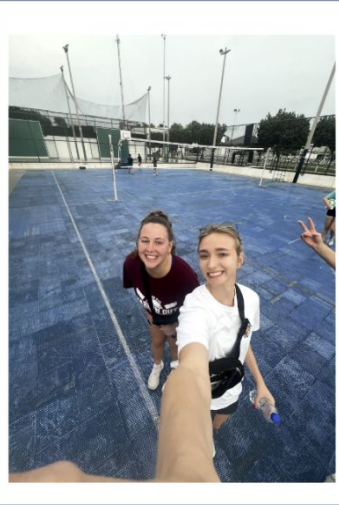

- On Saturday we enjoyed a walk through the Lima Historical District!
- (I also got pretty sunburnt that day) Thank you to Megan's aloe.
- Then, we were worn out with dance lessons at night in the hotel courtyard. I have not sweated that much from dancing...like ever. Really fun though and we found the music on Spotify!

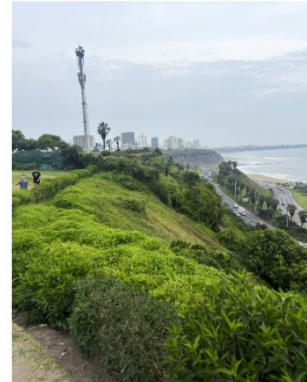

DEC 29th FREE DAY: PARACAS!!!!

Journey through Lima: Day 4

- On Dec. 30 we mostly had class, but we went to Miraflores to play Volleyball and basketball at sunset!
- Rodrigo and his Peruvian friends were really good and they played on a professional basketball league together!

New Year's Eve!

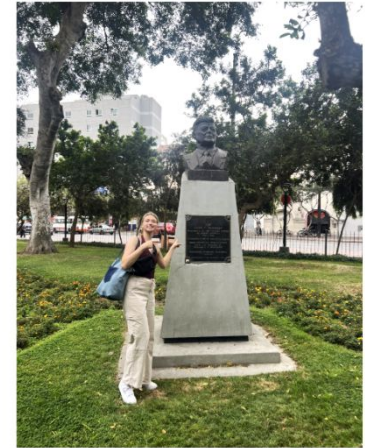

- We went surfing and then we all went to Lacomar Mall at sunset.
- Afterwards, the big NM Lima Dinner and NYE traditions took place with the lucky yellow colors.
